GRADUATION UPDATE FROM MR. PALLISTER: We have done surveys over the past year of families and students before and after graduation exercises. This data clearly tells us that we must continue celebrations while ensuring that everyone gets value for the price. The dance. 4. Celebration activities do not happen at school. 5. Students are given the opportunity for group pictures on the legislature grounds. 6. High price is a result of having a dinner as part of the celebration.

All groups who have been part of discussions have agreed that the following aspects of the celebration remain. 1. Families have an opportunity to mingle during the event. 2. Students have an opportunity to dress-up. 3. Students and families have an opportunity to celebrate with a . Time is provided for families to celebrate over a meal. 7. The meal does not need to be part of the formal celebration. 8. Ticket prices remain affordable for all.

Facey staff, along with parent and student supporters are actively exploring options to ensure that the eight aspects are in place while providing a memorable commencement and graduation celebration.

As principal, I am committed to providing this to our graduates and families. Our October 24th school council meeting will provide one last opportunity for consultation, whereupon a decision will be made by me as to the graduation structure.
