Youth Ambassadors Program: Are you in grade 10 or 11 and would like to do an exchange to the US in the summer? The Youth Ambassadors Program with Canada is a three-week exchange for Canadians to visit the United States. Conducted in the English language, the program brings together students, ages 15 to 18, and adult mentors from across Canada to promote mutual understanding, increase leadership skills, and position youth to make a difference in their communities. Program themes include civic education, community service, youth leadership, and social inclusion. See Student services to pick up an application form. Applications due April 11, 2015.

US College Expo: The U.S. College Expo is coming up on Sunday April 24th, 2016 11:00am – 2:00pm in Calgary, AB. Students and Student Athletes will benefit greatly from this event, learning about the U.S. Admissions Process, NCAA, Common App, and more... Students will engage and network with Representatives from American Colleges and Universities and uncover answers to questions pertaining to:

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and how to meet NCAA eligibility.

- Which sports qualify for scholarships.
- What U.S. Coaches looking for.
- Do you have to write SAT/ACT and SAT Subject Tests?
- Is a Prep School, or a Community College a better start for you?
- What is the cost of going to an American College vs. Canadian College?

Admission is free but students must register online: <http://uscollegeexpo.com/register.html> in advance.

Anyone accepted into U of A - U of A is hosting registration workshops to help students with their first year course selection and schedules. Advisors will be leading various sessions until April 23rd. To sign up visit uab.ca/reg101 or come to Student Services for more info.
